

The following legal notice is to be published one time in the Gadsden County Newspaper:

Notice is hereby given:

You are hereby notified that your eligibility to vote is in question. Failure to respond within 30 days after this notice is published may result in a determination of ineligibility by the Supervisor and removal of your name from the statewide voter registration system. You can contact our office no later than 30 days after the date of this published notice to receive information regarding the basis for potential ineligibility and the procedure to resolve the matter.

If you deny the accuracy of the information underlying the potential ineligibility, you have a right to request a hearing for the purpose of determining ineligibility.

If you attempt to vote at an early voting site or our normal election day polling place, you will be required to vote a provisional ballot. If you vote by mail, your ballot will be treated as a provisional ballot. In either case, your ballot may not be counted until a final determination of eligibility is made. If you wish for your ballot to be counted, you must contact the supervisor of elections office within 2 days after the election and present evidence that you are eligible to vote.

If you have any questions, contact our office at 850-627-9910.
